July 17th Across-The-Course Match

Match Director – Art Douville

Despite the muggy July weather, ten competitors turned out for the Across-the-Course, military rifle match. The match tested the competitor's ability to shoot from the off-hand, sitting and prone positions. It also included a speed challenge to the sitting and prone legs that required 10 aimed shots to be fired in 60 and 70 seconds respectively, with a mandatory reload. All total, 50 rounds are fired for a maximum possible score of 500-50X.

Although no one achieved that benchmark, Art Douville claimed first place with a respectable 373 shooting an M14A2. Dazy Perry and his AR15 shot a 357 while an M1 Garand shot by Paul Danner placed 3rd with a 330. John Hagan, shooting the only bolt-action, a Swiss K31, placed 4th with a 281.

Additional thanks go to the remaining shooter for competing and assisting with setup and clean-up; Nelson Fagan, Gene Blackburn, Dick Fille, Jim Vance, Matt Van Steen and guest Pryor Davis .

The next match should be in October.
